Welcome Day Event – thank you!

Hope you are enjoying the hurly-burly of the new school year. Thanks to everyone, our welcome day event was a real blast! We had over 450 residents present.

In particular, we'd like to thank the following vendors for their generous raffle prize donations:

- BJ's Restaurant & Brewery
- Boomers! Irvine
- Bren Events Center
- California Pizza Kitchen
- Chi Acupuncture
- Irvine Lanes
- Peet's Coffee & Tea
- Steelhead Brewery
- The Veggie Grill
- UC Items

We are also very grateful to all the housing staff, housing assistants, volunteers, our gifted bands/musicians, and all of you (the residents) for the support and help.

Like the music? They are the MOODS (theMOODS.net) and The Flying Varnadores!

Join Intentional Verano

Split a farm share box. Carpool to events in LA.
Start a wine tasting circle, a cult movie night, or a book group.

Life in Irvine can be a challenge, but Verano is filled with remarkable people - so let's take advantage! Join Intentional Verano today. It's a glorified bulletin board of our very own, dedicated to increasing co-operation and strengthening community.

Intentional Verano is for:

- proposing and coordinating activities
- rideshares - to LA, to SF, to the grocery store
- announcing parties or Verano-related events
- starting other groups, clubs, or initiatives

Intentional Verano isn't for:

- filling up inboxes – opt for a digest, or just check the site
- buying and selling – for that, use craigslist or the Gazette
- publicizing events that aren't specifically relevant to Verano
- advertisements, arguments, or anything of the sort
